TATTOO DEDICATION

If anyone wants proof that NBU is here to stay we present some pics from members.

NEW OFFICE BUILDING

We are in the process of setting up a new office complex that will include its own camping site. A full report will be in next months issue. Thank you to all officers and members who have made this exciting step forward a possibility.

ONE OF THE MANY

I am a great admirer of the work you are doing and would like to let you know hundreds like my self-wish to see the NBU strive for the greatness and gain the honour that it so deserves.

I am a very young political individual who has studied the BUF and the main aspect of politics of Word war two. I understand due to the law I cannot be given certain amounts of work to do. Although I'd be open for any kind of work there is to help with the NBU.

I have always supported the National Socialists Party and of course the BUF, but when I heard of the man Gary Raikes doing the impossible I tore with joy after, I heard his BUF talk on Youtube I fell for the NBU in amazement and wonder.

I would really like for you to reply by sending me anything I could do to help the NBU efforts.

Yours, Elis Dodd.

The following essay is based on a video presentation called Europe is killing itself by Pat Condell.

Much of what is mentioned in that video is what many of us are thinking and indeed living with on a daily basis. I agree with the whole thing, its sentiment and it's out right argument about Islam. I believe that we are or maybe have already walked in to a nightmare that we are struggling to wake up from. I hope this message is listened to and is understood. We are fighting for nothing more than the survival of our culture and our race. This message has been made ever more poignant by the news that our government, the ones we voted in to office are thinking of allowing known jihadist fighters back in to our country after they have taken part in actions of war and terror in Syria with Isis. WE know these men have killed and murdered people, they have the blood of innocent people on their hands and our government wants to give them welfare breaks. It's out of this world it's really is. We should be detaining them and concentrating those that have supported them and shutting down those mosques that have worshipped in. Much more needs to be done than is currently being done by our weak government. A war is coming, a civil war where the struggle for our very civilisation is at stake. We must resist, we must act we can not let this happen and I believe the whole country needs to read this message.

So apparently we don't have enough criminals, terrorists and rapists here in Europe. We do have quite a few, but unfortunately its nit enough for our politicians and the political classes ruling our country, so were having to import them wholesale from the Muslim third world, which being what it is has plenty to spare. Of course, along with the crime, terrorism, and rape, we are also importing the religion of Islam, which is followed in the main by millions of people from an already violent authoritarian culture who have been taught from birth that their religion must rule the world, by force if necessary that non-Muslims are inferior to them, that women are to be used by men, that little girls can be married to and raped by grown men, that Jews are the eternal enemy, and that all homosexuals should be killed. So, let's flood our great, emancipated society with millions of those people, and see what happens. Let's keep and open mind. Let's open ourselves up to the most brutal, predatory culture on earth, and let in hordes of unemployed mostly male fighting age welfare parasites that hate us and have no intention of integrating. What's the worst that can happen? Of course we mustn't generalise about men who've all been raised in the same violent misogynistic rape culture. We have to assume that the moment they set foot in Europe or our own country that they magically develop civilised western values like us, or well be racists. And when they lie about their age and pretend to be children, we have to take them at their word and put them with our children; because that's the kind of people we are in Europe and Great Britain, spineless irresponsible morons. We love nothing more than to signal our virtue, at literally any cost. And were so terribly proud of the fact that we don't discriminate, even when we should do just that. So the result is that Islamic terrorists can just walk right in along with everybody else, as six of the sick depraved Paris Jihad attackers did. Let us not forget that they walked right in to Europe as refugees with no checks, then made their way freely unmolested to where they wanted to be and started killing as many people as they liked. Boarder security? Oh no, that would send the wrong message, don't come! And we cant do that, because they've been invited, welcomed, taken in to our bosom and they think there coming to conquer us, too, they really do. It sounds absurd to us, like a horrible nightmare that any normal person would want to wake up from, but it's what they've been taught all their lives by their violent supremacist religion, so why would they not believe it? The sad thing is we can't complain because they keep telling us that exact thing, but we don't want to hear it, because it's just too outlandish an idea for us to take seriously, like nine eleven or something. Besides, we are far too afraid that if we do take it seriously somebody might call us a racist, and that far too high a price for us to pay not to sell out our children and our grand-children's future, so we're just going to sit back like beached whales and let it happen, for the sake of inclusion.

The countries in the south of Europe are getting the worst of the invasion, and Italy, that once great bastion of Fascism is at bursting point, because left-wing activist boats are being allowed to pick up migrants from traffickers and act as a virtual illegal ferry services to Europe. If the Italian government had nay regard at all for its own people or the rule of law, all those boats would be seized and scuttled and everybody on them thrown in to jail. But the Italian government is not the government of Benito Mussolini it is weak and doesn't want to stop the invasion, it wants other countries to re-open their borders, and accept their share of the nightmare and of course the European Union agrees. However some of its newer members such as Poland, Hungary, Slovakia, the Czech Republic and others are not so keen. It seems that these countries don't want their societies flooded with criminals, terrorists and rapists, and they're seriously embarrassed everyone else with their unfashionable common sense. They can see the explosion of crime and violence in the countries that have like us opened their borders, and they rightly feel that it would be a betrayal of their own people, now there's a novel idea, to let this poison in to their societies. They don't want their countries to be places where women and girls are afraid to go out or out on their own at night. Where it seems like every week there's another gang rape by men who got into the country by pretending to be children. They don't want their countries riddled with police no-go zones controlled by Muslim gangs like we have here in our country. They don't want to see their prisons full of terrorists and rapists they can't deport. They don't want Saudi-funded mosques preaching sedition, violence, and hate, while everybody else's right to free speech is truncated to a vial stump of itself. And they really don't want cultural Marxism because they have a recent history of being governed by actual Marxism, and they can smell the evil, they know it's rotten. They also know what the rest of us have known for quite some time now, that being governed by open borders politicians is like travelling with a suicidal bus on a mountain road it's obvious now that if we don't get somebody else at the wheel, and soon, we are all going over a cliff.

The established order has shown that they can't be trusted with our safety and security, and they're not persuaded by evidence or reason. No the established order are hell bent to press on with the folly regardless, like religious zealots who believe they're acting in the cause of a greater good that transcends the wishes of the people who elected them, if anyone did elect them. They know very well that this invasion is making Europe more dangerous, especially for women and less civilised, but they think it's a price worth paying. As long as somebody else pays it. So if your child is murdered by an Islamic terrorist, or your daughter is raped by an illegal migrant, they'll murmur their regrets, but privately they'll consider it collateral damage. The important thing, the progressive thing, is to merge the two cutlers, the civilised one and the barbarous one.

GET INVOLVED IN YOUR COMMUNITY AND SPREAD THE CREED OF FASCISM

Of course they know that a civilised people will instinctively reject barbarism. Therefore civilised people need to be re-educated to believe that barbarism is as valid as civilisation and worthy of equal respect or you'll be a criminal, which is pretty much where we are now.

You see, politicians don't like having the ugly truth pointed out to them when they're trying so hard to ignore it, because it shows them up for the unprincipled invertebrates they are. So here in Europe they've simply made the truth illegal, because they can. We don't have a First Amendment here, so free speech means whatever they say it means, and that means we don't have free speech at all. It seems we fought so hard to get rid of the Iron Curtain, only to replace it with an iron lid, because several European countries have now prosecuted their own citizens as criminals for expressing the wrong opinion about the mass illegal Muslim invasion that is being forced upon us. Earlier this year a man in Austria was sentenced to five months in prison for expressing the opinion that Islam is at war with the West, when it's painfully clear to everyone that Islam is very much at war with the West. Only a fool, or a judge, could deny it. Islam is our sworn enemy, and that's not us saying that, it's Islam saying it. Read the Koran and see for yourself. The Whole of the Muslim world wants the west put to the sword. The Koran is a virtual declaration of war against the whole of humanity. There is no ambiguity about it, no whatsoever. It's all about slaying and subduing the infidel. There is no love thy neighbour, no Golden Rule, no seek the kingdom of heaven within. It's all about conquering and killing unbelievers, waging war against the world, and shoving Islam down everyone's throats whether you like it or not. Let's be clear, that's what the terrorists are trying to do, because that's what their scripture tells them to do. And we are reminded that every time police in Europe find a military grade arms cache hidden near or in a mosque.

Islam despises everything we're supposed to stand for. Islam would abolish all our freedoms given half the chance. You only have to look at the places on this earth where Islam dominates and black holes of ignorance and cruelty. It stamps out freedom wherever it gets the upper hand and non-Muslims are always persecuted, because that is what the religion demands. As an ideology, it's so absurd and inhuman it would fall apart if it wasn't held together by the threat of violence. So it should be no surprise to us that it gives its followers a mandate to conquer humanity by force, it has nothing else to offer. Let us be clear. The only reason it hasn't conquered us in the West is because we are stronger. If Islam was stronger, we would all be Muslims now or dead and we have no excuse for not knowing that, and no excuse for not acting upon it. Then great American president Thomas Jefferson knew it more than two hundred years ago when he asked the Arab ambassador why they attacked and enslaved people who had done them no harm, and he was told that it was because the Koran instructs Muslims to wage war against everyone who does not submit to Islam, and make slaves of prisoners. He was also told that every Muslim who dies in this cause will go straight to Paradise, this sounds all too familiar doesn't it. So this jihad terror insanity we see today is nothing new at all, it's not some sudden aberration, it's not based on a misunderstanding or wrong interpretation of scripture, it is not the corruption of a great religion, an idea that we are force fed by our politicians. It is simply Islam, and it has always been Islam. and if we don't start pushing back against now, as we have had to do throughout its history, it will prevail like an incoming tide, because we have opened the door to it now, in a way that has never happened before, and we are sleepwalking into a disaster. We have freely opened our society to the most backward, repressive, brutal, and predatory culture on the planet. A culture that belongs in another century, and on another planet. A culture that thinks its going to take over, so it has no respect for the law and we give it every encouragement, to, by censoring ourselves and by backing away from it and mumbling nonsense about tolerance and diversity to people who don't know the meaning of those words, and who laugh at us openly. As the late great Enoch Powell states, we must be insane. I ask the question, when do you think we will come to our senses and stop re-electing the criminals who are imposing this nightmare in Europe and our own country? Will it be when the situation is so bad that it is irreversible? Will it be when Europe and the U,K resembles the Muslim third world, with violent crime rampant, police outnumbered and quitting in droves, as they are in Sweden right now? Will it be when criminal gangs and Sharia dominating the public space? When women are assaulted and raped daily, children raped and molested, regular gunfire, car bombs, suicide bombs and paramilitary conflict on the streets? Do you that will shake us out of our virtuous stupor? Well, we'll soon find out because that is what's coming, sooner that we think. The seeds have already been sown. Let us do our duty to our country and our race and get up of our knees and fight because they are fighting. Ask yourself. Do they love this country more than you? Do they want what is best for you and your children and your country? No they don't. We must wake up, we must act now because it may be to late tomorrow.

HAVE YOUR SAY

Message: Big fan of Oswald Mosley's ideas and beliefs for this country. Great Britain is in dire need of new leadership even now. Mass immigration flock and huddle within our borders, weakening our strength, union and legitimacy of our great nation. I believe heavily in the British Empire and in my lifetime I want to fight life and limb to see it rise once again. One thing I support is the freedom of religious views and political opposition even if I don't like or support them I will still listen and argue. The migration crisis is tearing this country apart and our families. I believe that any true nation should put its own people first, instead of letting migrants take refuge in an already overpopulated country. What this country needs is order, stability, economic growth, national power and military might, unity, jobs for the British workers and much more. I treat everyone equal and I am not racist in any way but that does not mean I have some views on some concerning faiths and beliefs, naturally. The meaning of Fascism is lost with people saying it without any knowledge of what it's about. We must educate the population in its true meaning and show Great Britain and a new era and make Great Britain Great. I may be young but so was Oswald Mosley when he joined politics.

Catalan independence bid should inspire us all.

A nation is formed when folks have a common mother-tongue and are living in a common territory joined together. The common-mother-tongue reflects the fact that these folk have been living, working and acting together for a long historical period. A common tongue and common territory at its beginning are the distinguishing features of a nation. They are what makes it different from other nations.

One way some countries have of oppressing others is that of forcing the conquered nation to speak the tongue of the oppressing nation.

This happened to Catalunya for many years and is starting to happen again especially with the persecution of its leaders by the Spanish government. Catalunya has its own mother-tongue and a common territory and is, therefore, a nation and as such is entitled to national independence. Spain is not a nation it is a country made up of a few nations including Catalunya and the Basque Country, which has an equal claim to independence.

How refreshing it was to see the joy and jubilation on the faces of the young Catalans celebrating their independence. They are behind their government, unlike so many of England's doom-laden youngsters who seem to believe us old folk have ruined their future for voting for our independence.

Our youngsters could take a tip from the young Catalans and show faith and loyalty to their country.

One reason for the strength of the demand for independence is Catalans are fed up with subsidising all of Spain. This reminds me of the fact that England is subsidising Scotland, Wales and the six counties of Ulster. Isn't it about time that England declared unilateral independence from the rest of the UK?

Message: Hello there! I am interested in starting a similar movement in America. I would love some tips and tricks if you have any. I am worried though, as ANTIFA and other organizations may get me and others hurt. I am not fully capable of trusting the officers to keep peace, as they have been called off in the past by their bosses and therefore, allow violence to break out in the streets. I do not want any such things to occur. Perhaps having a division for our own security is a better idea than trusting the police or using other means of protection during say a march or meeting. I want my nation to arise from foolishness and once again, lead the world as an example of manhood and strength making a comeback into the world.

An anti-immigration Eurosceptic billionaire is about to become the new PM of the Czech Republic and all over Europe Nationalism is on the rise! Andrej Babis leads the Action for Dissatisfied Citizens [AND]. He gained 30 per cent of the votes after campaigning against EU migrant quotas. A coalition with the Freedom and Direct Democracy Party which wants to leave the EU is likely. In Scandinavia the Sweden Democrats and the True Finns are upsetting politics across Scandinavia and in the Netherlands the Party for Freedom which wants to leave the EU and ban Islam took more seats than ever before and is the second biggest party in the Netherlands.

In France Marine le Pen's Front National won more than a third of France's popular vote and very importantly half the votes of the 18-25 year olds! She calls for scrapping the euro, curbing immigration and has anti-Islamic policies.

In Germany the nationalist and Euro-sceptic Alternative for Germany [the AfD] is now the country's third biggest party. The AfD has campaigned hard against Merkel's "open-door" stance on immigration and has a main slogan of Islam is not part of Germany. It also caused some outrage [and a lot of support!] when it said the black footballer Jerome Boateng was a good player but you would not want someone like Boateng as a neighbour! [Well?].

I Poland President Andrzej Duda's nationalist Law and Justice Party has policies which are focussing on anti-Islamic concerns and supports conservative family values and is now anti-Europe.

In Hungary Prime Minister Viktor Orban's anti-immigration party is against EU integration, promotes family values, rejects same-sex marriage and accepts few homosexual rights. In 2015 Orban ordered the building of a barrier fence along Hungary's Serbian border to keep outlanders out. Now there is a harder party, the Jobbik Party whose leader, Gabor Vona, once formed an anti-gypsy paramilitary group which was banned in 2009!

In Austria more than half the voters went for either the Eurosceptic Austrian People's Party [the DVP] led by the charismatic Sebastian Kurz or the anti-Islam, anti-immigration and anti-Europe Freedom Party led by Christian Strache which came second in recent elections. It looks as if Chancellor Kurz might form a coalition with Strache whose FPÖ has been accused of xenophobia and racism [haven't we all].

In Italy the anti-establishment Five Star Movement is the country's most popular party and looks likely to cause an upset in the 2018 elections. It is against the Euro. Like Catalunya two of Italy's regions Lombardy and Veneto led by the Northern League are holding referendums asking for even more autonomy.

LEADERS MESSAGE

British Fascists and proud of it

The name of our movement is New British Union and the faith of the movement is the fascist creed as defined by Mosley in the foreword of 'Tomorrow we live' published back in 1938, and to that position NBU proudly adheres with ever increasing justification from events and with ever increasing support from the people.

NBU in whole character is a British principle suited to Britain alone. It is true that our fascist creed is universal in different form and method to all great countries of the world. That was true also in their own period of every great creed, political or religious, that our country has ever known.

The only difference in this respect between NBU and the old establishment parties is that our creed belongs to the 21st century, and their creeds to the past that conceived them. Fascism is in essence a national doctrine which finds in each great nation a character, policy, form and method suited to each particular country. For this reason a far greater divergence will be found in the expression of modern fascism in different countries than prevail in the international creeds such as liberalism and socialism, or conservatism, which under various names can be found in every country in the world.

NBU does not borrow ideas from abroad, we have no foreign models for a plain and simple reason. We are proud enough of our own people to believe that, once Britain is awake, our people will not follow, but will once again lead mankind. In this deep faith we hold that no lesser destiny is worthy of the British people than that the whole world shall find in Britain an example.

A SHORT HISTORY OF CANADIAN FASCISM AND THE CURRENT STATE OF CANADA

Canada, who by nature
resented Semites,
communists and the

In the 1930's, there were three fascist parties in Canada: the Canadian Union of Fascists, formerly named the British Empire Union of Fascists, (a Mosleyite party allied to the British Union of Fascists), the Parti National Social Chrétien (the National Social Christian Party) in Quebec, which looked to protestant Anglo-Canadian membership under the name the National Unity Party of Canada. The NUPC was the largest and most successful of the three parties. Lastly, was the Canadian Nationalist Party.

All three parties had a vision of an all-white, all-Christian Canada. As such, they were little troubled by the government or the people of immigration of the asian horde into British Columbia. In Ontario and the prairie provinces, the Klu Klux Klan had a large membership.

Although not fascist in nature, the Klan vehemently opposed foreign immigration.

The security section of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police kept a watch on all fascists in Canada but did little in the way of interference.

As Europe marched toward a second world war, the Canadian fascists were more closely watched by the state. Having said that, when war was declared and the authorities set about corralling (the fascist parties), their enthusiasm for doing so seems to have been lukewarm. Several facts may explain the tempered response to fascists that contrasts so sharply with police and state commitment to putting down communist movements. First, the authorities and the fascists shared a dislike of the socialists and communists. Second, German settlers enjoyed a largely favourable reputation in Canada, despite the xenophobia stirred up by the Great War, so even ethnic pro-Hitler groups like the Deutscher Bund Kanada might be treated with kid gloves. Third, anti-semitic sentiments were almost ubiquitous among Catholic and Protestant Canadians so this (policy) of fascism did not set off alarm bells.

So moderately were the fascists treated that the leader of the NUPC survived the war to run in several more elections after 1945.

As evidence of the anti-Semitism in Canada, in 1939, the Prime Minister, William Lyon MacKenzie King, and his immigration Minister Frederick Blair, refused to allow 907 Jews into Canada from the ship St. Louise, which had sailed from Hamburg as the Jews tried to escape German persecution. The captain also tried to land them in Cuba, and other Caribbean ports and even the U.S.A., but was refused by all. On return to

Europe they finally were allowed to land in Belgium only to be over-run by the invading Germans. 254 of those arrested died in concentration camps.

Fast forwarding to the early 1960's, as a young school boy, I had never seen a negro and in my school there were two East Indians and perhaps eight Chinese students. In other words most Canadians were of European descent.

Then in 1968, the Liberal government of Pierre Trudeau took power. He stayed for four terms until 1984 and destroyed the integrity of the population of Canada. Today, his son is now Prime Minister, and he continues his father's corrupt ways - destroying Canada and its British heritage.

In schools now, there are few European descendants, most students are Chinese or South-east Asian, Muslim, West Indian, black and that ilk. When schools let out you do not hear any English being spoken, just foreign unintelligible babble.

I have been interested in fascism for over 50 years and have studied Sir Oswald Mosley in detail, and the benefits he could have brought to Britain. His forward innovative thinking, so uncharacteristic of the Conservative, Labour and Liberal parties of England, still affects us. The Brexit vote to leave the E.U. was just what he would have favoured. His concept of "Europe a Nation" would have assured sovereignty for each nation, but provided a framework within which unified defence and overall government for Europe would have stopped all wars and stopped immigration of foreign elements that have placed us all in danger of being submerged in our own countries.

Canada is now following in Britain's footsteps. The recent immigration of 25,000 Muslims by order of Trudeau, the Younger, only means that here too, all white European Canadians will be a minority in their own country in but a few decades.

I strongly support our Leader, Gary Raikes, in his picking up the torch passed from Sir Oswald Mosley to him. It is only by united action that change can be had. Blackshirts unite. In Britain, Canada, the USA and elsewhere, we must all work to end immigration of non-Europeans.

Hail The Leader

Signed - David Clark, U.E.

RALLY TO OUR BANNER

Almost six years ago Gary Raikes re-lit the torch of fascism in Britain by founding New British Union. Many times during that period determined attempts have been made to extinguish that torch by enemies, very often disguised as friends. Sometimes they have almost succeeded. The light flickered and grew dim, but there was that vital spark which kept it alive through the stress of bad times until at last it is kindling into a flame that will sweep the whole country.

Thinking people of all classes, tired of the mess in which our professional politicians have landed us, are beginning to seek a real alternative. British Fascism is able, and willing, to supply it. British fascism is as distinct from Italian Fascism as German National Socialism is from both, the only thing common to all is the spirit of patriotism which animates any fascist movement.

British fascism can save Britain from the forces of disloyalty and disruption which are gathering for the attack, while the political elite arrange trips to conferences all over the world at the expense of the tax-payers.

To our members and supporters we say the time is ripe to redouble our efforts to carry the light to those still in darkness. To the real patriot we say, "Rally to our banner and help us to repair the errors of our failed political parties." They have all betrayed us. Our programme is sane, and, above all else, practical. It aims at placing our country on a sound basis to get back to where she should be as the leader of the world in everything which makes for progress and prosperity.

Join our ranks now, and hasten the day when we can once more hold our heads high as proud citizens of the greatest country under the sun.

Sam Curtis
NBU secretary

A Fascist Brotherhood

Ours is a creed of union not division. We are a body of people in search of truth, and we seek to create a social organism which will allow mankind to express truth in action. We view history as a long striving to this high purpose. For those who demand a definition of truth the answer is, that truth is not to be confused in one word, one man, one nation, or one continent. Each and everyone has their own view of truth, be they warrior or worker, artist or navvy. Some, the leaders have a wider view than the rest. Others fear truth, such men deserve not hatred, but pity, for they have turned their backs to the light and fear their own shadows.

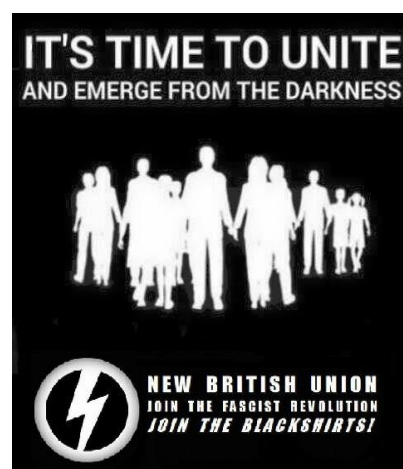

Our message to a suffering continent is to restore love of our fellow men to a hate racked world. The enemies of truth fear love, for when love wins the day the hate-mongers will no longer be able to stir brother against brother. If some in ignorance laugh at love, we can only say "without love, brotherhood is merely a word".

Let all in Europe who have fought inspired by love of country, unite and love their continent with it's 3000 years of culture, not a European super-state but a family of nations and their long and painful striving towards a fuller and finer expression of truth. Let us waste no energy on anger towards those who have no feeling for this idea, they deserve pity. If any who actively and wilfully attack this idea they will reap as they have sown. The light ever conquers darkness such is a principle in nature.

United in brotherhood Europe will weather the coming storm. The time is short, and those who have a sense of duty to the future must steel themselves for this, the mightiest task that ever challenged the soul of man. History bears witness to the heroism of those in all walks of life who froze, burned, starved in the service of truth. This present tear and blood stained chapter shall end with the words; "It was not in vain."
